

18-24 year olds are the only group more comfortable with mixed marriage than any other factor

	18-24	25-34	35-44	45-54	55-64	65+
Someone of a different race or ethnicity to their own	65	56	49	45	48	27
Someone who is from a much wealthier background	63	73	68	71	75	80
Someone who is from a much poorer background	50	64	63	61	54	57
Someone with a disability or long-term health condition	42	43	44	35	32	24
Someone who practices a different faith	42	39	45	40	47	37
Someone of the same sex	37	26	26	20	7	-16
Someone in another in country which involved going to live abroad	16	17	7	8	9	15
Someone who is more than 15 years older or younger than them	4	1	5	1	1	8
Someone who is long-term unemployed	-15	-4	-16	-26	-36	-58
Someone with a criminal record	-26	-12	-36	-42	-56	-65

Net Scores (total comfortable - total uncomfortable)

Numbers in darkest green indicate the best supported statement for each age group

Q1. Some people feel uncomfortable with the choices that their children or grandchildren might make about their relationships. Regardless of whether you have children at the moment, how would you feel if your child or grandchild were to have a serious relationship or marriage with any of the following: [Base: Total population [n = 2149]]

	18-24s
	Comfortable	Uncomfortable
Someone of a different race or ethnicity to their own	70	5
Someone who is from a much wealthier background	71	8
Someone who is from a much poorer background	63	13
Someone with a disability or long-term health condition	53	11
Someone who practices a different faith	59	17
Someone of the same sex	57	20
Someone in another in country which involved going to live abroad	43	27
Someone who is more than 15 years older or younger than them	35	31
Someone who is long-term unemployed	27	42
Someone with a criminal record	22	48